

Visit to Lincoln

It is a beautiful town of Lincolnshire in England on the hill above the River Witham.

The huge Cathedral Church of the Blessed Virgin Mary of Lincoln is the dominant of the town. It was built in a Gothic style in the years 1185 – 1311.

The old castle was built in the 11th century by William the Conqueror on a strategic crossroads in the old Roman and Viking city.

Steep Hill is a popular tourist street in the historic city of Lincoln. There are a lot of shops, tea rooms and pubs.

